he 40 Committee: America's most clandestine spy group

Sun-Times Bureau

played the key role in the U.S. intervention in Chile between 1970 and 1973, is probably the U.S. government. most secret and secretive organization in the WASHINGTON - The 40 Committee, which telligence Agency loose in supporting and unwhen and where to set the Central Indermining foreign governments. It has evolved over the last 20 years as a Technically a subcommittee of the National Security Council, it was first known as the Special Group or the 54/12 Group, from the secret Order 54/12 under which it was created in the early years of the Eisenhöwer adminis-

Later, after the intelligence apparatus was reorganized in the Kennedy administration following the Bay of Pigs flasco, it came to be known as the 303 Committee.

came the 40 Committee. Finally, in the Nixon administration it be same from the beginning — the President's national security adviser as chairman, the Its membership has been more or less the secretary of state for political affairs and the deputy secretary of defense, the under-M. Nixon, the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of director of the CIA. Under President Richard

Staff was added. ations in foreign countries. once a week to consider major covert operson administrations, the committee met about During the Eisenhower, Kennedy and Johnedly abandoned the practice of regular group meetings and generally dealt singly with the less a one-man operation. Kissinger reportcials say, the 40 Committee became more or other members. During Nixon's first term, intelligence offi-

To preserve secrecy, the committee has always been served by a small staff, reportedly no more than two or three intelligence specialists.

derstood to be largely excluded. President through his national security adviser, but other members of the NSC are un-The committee regularly reports to the said he is convinced Ford was not aware of In fact, a close associate of President Ford committee when he became President > retaries of state and defense. NSC, together with the President and the seceven though as vice president he had been one of the four statutory members of the John F. Kennedy. his service as vice president under President son said he was similarly in the dark during Sources close to President Lyndon B. John cause covert operations were viewed as going ly years of the CIA's existence, evidently bebeyond the law. The committee did not exist during the ear-telligence" at the order of the NSC. defined the duties of the CIA, makes no menother functions and duties related loophole clause permitting the CIA to perform ion of foreign operations. But it contains a The National Security Act of 1947, which ಕ Ħ.

proved a broad policy of conducting foreign ing additional authority from Congress, ap-But later that year the NSC, without seek-ations but eventually delegated the to the committee in the mid-1950's. At first the NSC as a whole approved operthe authority

Reveal Kissinger order on Chile

Continued from Page 5

Committee, shortly after Aliende's overthrow last September, that "the CIA had nothing to do with the coup to the best of my knowledge and belief."

At a background meeting with reporters in Chicago in September, 1970, three months after the 40 Committee approved the Chile opersphere. . . . We are taking a close look at the situation. It is not one in which our capacity for influence is very great." us, and indeed to the whole Western Hemiation, Kissinger said, "An Allende take-over in Chile would present massive problems for We are taking a close look at the tinational corporations, which held hearings last year on the alleged ties between the CIA Corp. in Chile, is looking into possible perjury and the International Telephone & Telegraph The Senate committee's subpanel on mulinquiries for "fear they'll run into Kissinger pressed concern that Congress would blunt its who has forced the new revelations, exby other State Department officials. But Rep. Michael J. Harrington (D-Mass.) There's a disinclination in Congress to get into some areas that might per ipherally damage or embarass Kissinger."

Pro-junta newspaper raps "grotesque" CIA-coup story, Page 54.

1971, and of Charles A. Meyer, former assistant secretary of state for Latin American affairs and now an official for Sears Roebuck Korry, ambassador to Chile between 1967 and The multinational subcommittee was concentrating on the testimony of Edward M. & Co. in Chicago.

seek to pressure, subvert, influence a single member of the Chilean Congress at any time in the entire four years of my stay. No hard line toward Chile was carried out at any Korry testified, "The United States did not coups." Meyer testified, "We bought no votes, we thrown into the Chilean Congress because Allende, though getting the most votes in a three-way race, failed to win a majority. bribe money when the 1970 election was U.S. agents were accused of passing out